

Anna Morgoulets was born in Volgograd, Russia. She began playing the violin aged 6, following her studies at the Tel-Aviv Buchmann-Mehta School of Music, during which she participated in numerous master-courses lead by world famous musicians, such as Miriam Fried, Itzhak Perlman, Pinchas Zukerman and many more. During her studies in Israel, Anna performed as a soloist with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra and the Jerusalem Radio Symphony Orchestra. She later went on to study at the Vienna Konservatorium with Prof. Pavel Vernikov, receiving her Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees in 2015. During her studies in Vienna, Anna has performed in diverse chamber music formations and had gone on concert tours in Europe and Asia. She has played in all major Austrian Orchestras, including the Vienna State Opera House, Vienna Symphony Orchestra and Vienna Chamber Orchestra. Since 2013 she holds the 1. Concertmaster's chair at the Carinthian Symphony Orchestra of the Theater in Klagenfurt, Austria.