

Eva-Sophie Müller, a professional dancer, holds a Diploma in modern dance - Dance Pedagogy and Stage-Maturity - from the Iwanson International School of Contemporary Dance (Munich, Germany). During this time she had a number of engagements at the Staatstheater Augsburg.

After Eva finished her High School Diploma at OHG elite school of sport and her diploma at Iwanson, she moved to Vienna to finish her education in classical dance with a second diploma at "Studio an der Wien" under the direction of Viktor Shekhovtsov.

Eva-Sophie has over 10 years of experience as a professional ballet dancer and has performed at renowned venues such as the "Theater an der Wien" e.g. in the production of "La Donna de Lago", „Les Pechers de Perle“, „Le compte d´Hoffmann“ conducted by William Friedkin and „Radamisto.

As a solo ballet couple, Eva-Sophie was hired by the Orangerie Schönbrunn. Her tour with the Stage Entertainment Group took her to Russia, the Ukraine and Germany.