

Nataliya Kushnirenko

Born on 13 September, 1977 in a small town in the south of Ukraine.

At the age of six, I had found my love for dance. Already at that age I decided to bring my body into movement through the medium of dance. However, this love competed fiercely with another love for the next ten years: that of tennis, which I did intensively at the time – in parallel with dancing - with up to five hours of training daily.

At the age of fifteen, my great love of dance finally won out, and I decided to study dance (classical ballet, expressionistic dance, ethnic dance styles, contemporary dance, jazz dance, dance education), which I did at the art college in Dnepropetrovsk, successfully graduating in 1999.

After that, I was on tour for almost a decade with a dance show (classical, semi-classical, contemporary) that brought me to many countries and several continents, and gave me a lot of stage experience.

Since 2010, I have been working with joy and enthusiasm for the Vienna Residence Orchestra on the stages of this Danube metropolis.
